The members hanging the exhibition decision of where works are displayed is final and no work can be removed before the exhibition is closed. This is to protect all members and ensure that we can hold future exhibitions. Entry open to all women over 18 +.

WAAW cannot accept any responsibility for damage, loss or theft of work. WAAW and Llanover Hall reserve the right to refuse any artwork they believe to be unsuitable. By submitting your work, you are granting Women's Arts Association Wales the right to display the work and use low resolution photos or images of the artwork to promote the event.

Preparation of work for display

INSURANCE – the artwork will be insured whilst at Llanover Hall. Any work remaining after the exhibition collection date will be left at the owner's risk. Please supply insurance figures to WAAW

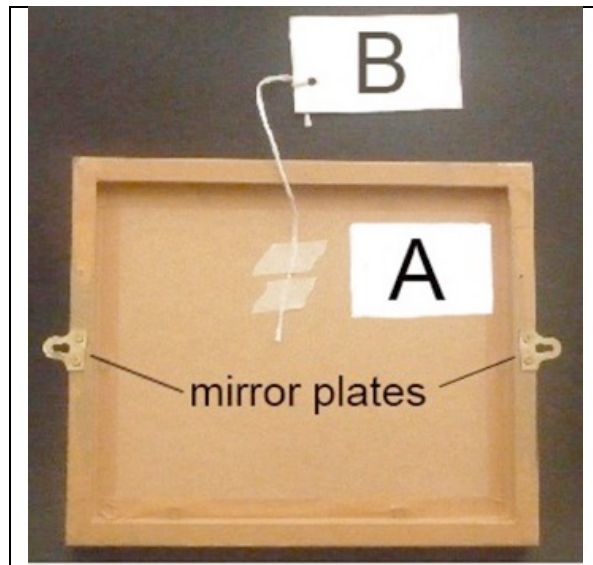

All 2d work must be suitably framed with mirror plates attached halfway up the vertical side and turned out.

No clip frames.

There must be a label attached to the back

A, and a hanging label on string B.

3D work must have a label attached.

When filling in the title of your work on the form and labels, add the date of the work as this is a part of your copyright protection.

Gallery commission is charged at the sale price. 30% plus 20% VAT on the commission only. Example: £36% is deducted from the wall price leaving the artist 64%. £64 in every £100 goes to the artist. You can round up to a £5 or 0.

Drop off and collection times must be strictly adhered to. If you cannot make the dates please ensure that someone else is available to drop off and collect for you. Maybe a friend, relative or other artist. If this is the case please put the alternative phone number under your details on page 4. Thank you.
